Mrs. Irma Painter, a graduate of W.S.U., came to Shadle in 1957 as a study hall supervisor and counselor. She is constantly a source of inspiration and aid for Shadle students.

We Dedicate Our Book To One Who Has Dedicated Herself To Us:

To Mrs. Irma Painter . . .

. . . a genuine part of

Shadle Park, who has understood, assisted,

counseled, and encouraged

us. To you who have sacrificed much to prepare us for the future . . .

we dedicate the 1964 Sporrان.

Your Spirit . . .

YOU know the Spirit, Highlanders . . .

YOU know the feeling of pride when the bagpipes come near . . .

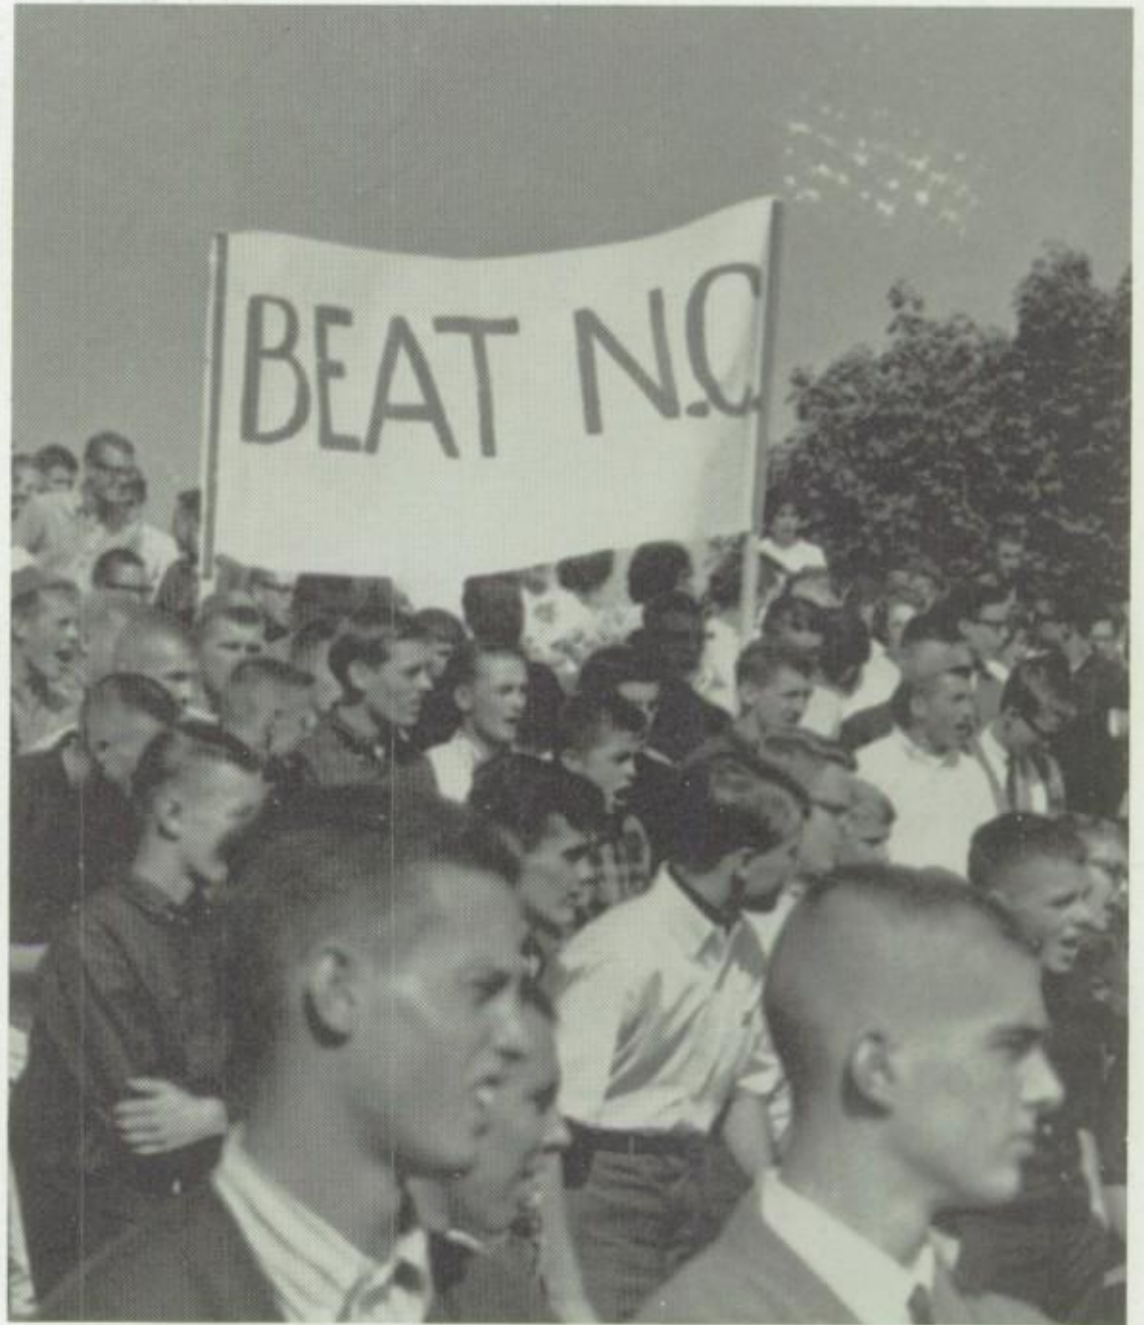

YOU know the high exhilaration that fills the air at every pep con . . .

YOU know the parched throats that follow every game . . .

YOU know the satisfaction and feeling of triumph that comes with victory . . .

YOU know the taste of disappointment when defeat comes . . .

Yes, Highlanders, you know what Spirit is . . . YOU ARE THE SPIRIT!

Is there any doubt whose spirit and enthusiasm is "The Finest in the Land"?

Your Learning . . .

Greg,

Not only are you about the greatest lab partner you are also a great guy to know. You've got a great personality. Best to you always KATHY

As you look back to your high school years, you will see the many memories that made up a part of your growing-up years. You will see how high school enabled you to get not only an academic education, but also an education of your fellow man.

As you look forward to the future, you will recognize the many opportunities made available as a result of having an education, and you will give thanks that you took advantage of it; it has prepared you for the Challenge!!

The Senior Court is a very special senior privilege.

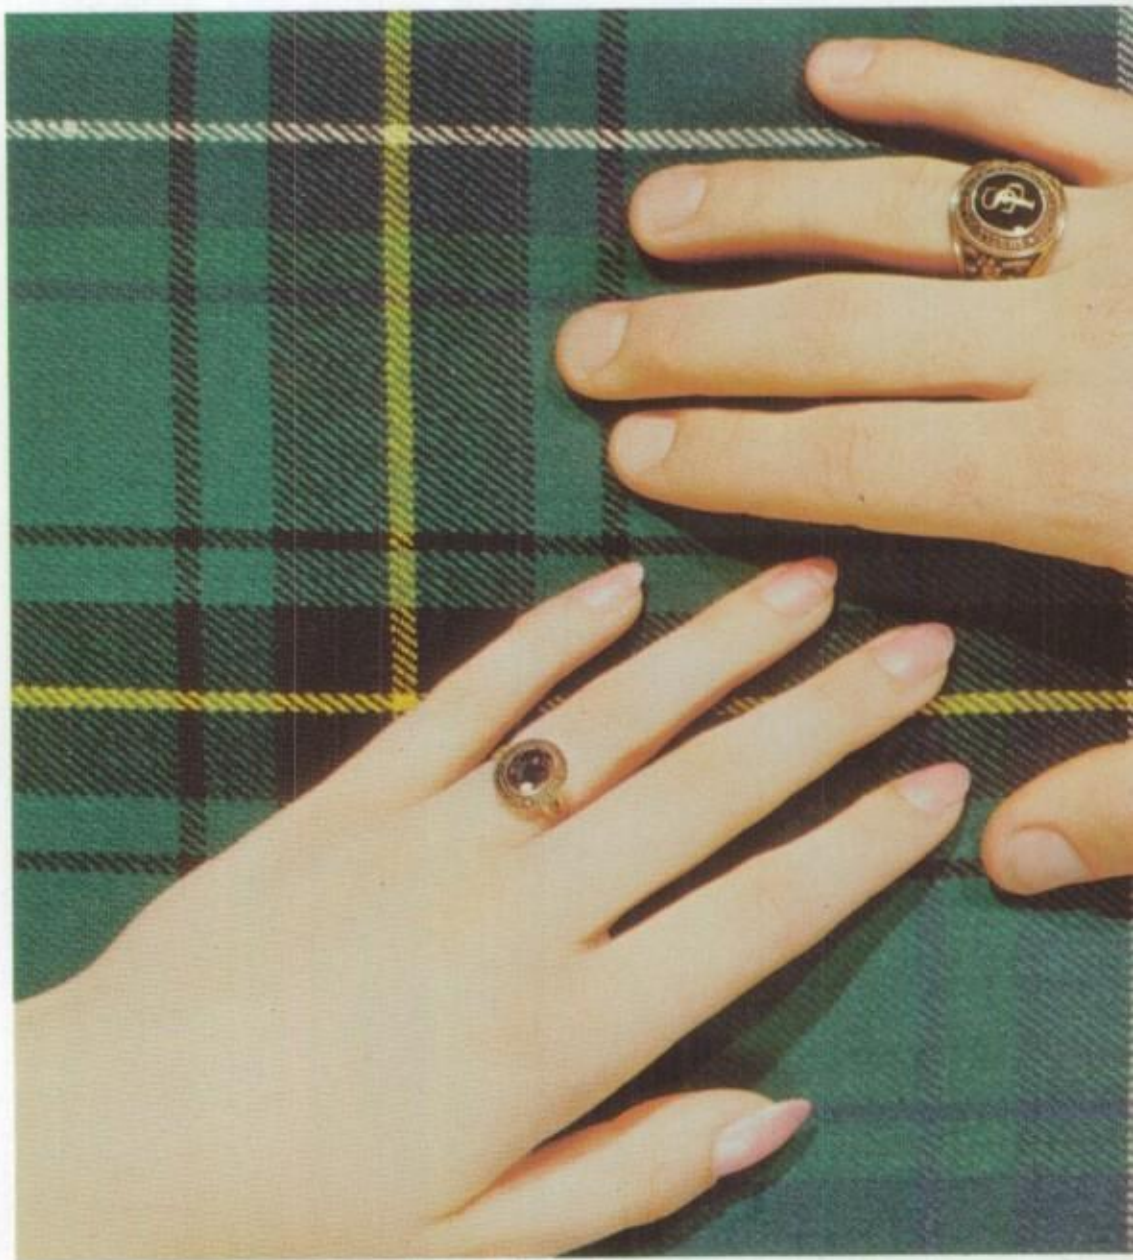

Your classes provide an introduction to possible professions for the future.

Your Tradition and Participation

Not mud, or sleet, or aching feet could halt you or our marching Lassies and band as we supported our teams, and as you support our dances, our "cons," and our classes. You were the color of tradition in participation . . .

Traditions of Shadle Park appear not only in the power of spirit, but also in the very real beauty of our jewelry.

Always in step with our activities, the Hi-Lassies marching here, support and participate in all phases of school life.

Holding high our Scottish heritage, the "Shadle Pipers" present traditional highland music.

Reaping excellent comments everywhere, Shadle's marching band makes it a tradition, to add lively music to our support of Shadle teams.

Our football squad, as all Shadle teams, whether winning or losing, played hard, consistently enjoyable games.

November 22, 1963: a day to become infamous in history as a shot fired in Dallas left a shock wave encircling the globe. John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States was assassinated; an untimely ending to the term of the youngest man and first Roman Catholic ever elected President. While the life faded his words echo back:

"Ask not what your country can do for you. Ask what you can do for your country."

Immediately assuming the office of President, Lyndon B. Johnson, promised to carry to completion the objectives of the former administration.

Your World, Faded

Three Shadle lassies catch up on the latest news. And what is news? Why, the Italian knit sweaters they're wearing.

(While "radiator-leaning" a favorite pre-school pastime) THESE highland laddies display the patched sleeves and taper-slacks that were the latest this year.

While running errands this lassie finds the "in" style is the Empire waist.

Shadle girls, studying here, show off the fashion "hits" of '64; the bow collar, "A" line skirt, the shift, and the round neckline.

nd Fancies . . .

1964: a year of agitation and crises, fads and fashions. We will remember; songs, dances, and cars that set this time apart, the national and international tensions that made this a distinctive year. This a time of life and living and for Shadle a time of color . . .

With the thrust like the power of this rocket, 1964 is thrust into history.

"Bird" watching is a popular hobby, as many Shadleites took up this popular new dance craze.

Miss Helen Cleveland, counselor; Mrs. Olga Iversen, counselor; Mr. Robert Stockman, business manager; and Mrs. Irma Painter, counselor.

Those having schedule, college, or scholastic problems, receive guidance from our counseling staff.

Guiding our growth, the assistant administrators consider reports of Shadle enrollment.

Your Administration

Remember the horror of having a locker that "just won't open," finding you ate the wrong lunch, discovering you took the wrong test for college entrance, realizing that "the machine made a mistake!" and you're the only girl in metal shop? No matter how great the emergency, the "crises" were soon solved by our Administrators . . .

As founder of Shadle's Math Department and SMSG math course here, Miss Blanche Smith has become a true Highlander. Miss Smith, who has served the teaching profession on all levels, including national, came to us in 1957. We are grateful that she has chosen to end her career here.

As supervisor of the Administrative staff and the school in general, our principal, Mr. William Taylor, has led Shadle to a place of honor.

and Counselors . . .

In Memoriam

"My peace I give to you: Peace I leave with you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

"If ever there was a man the youth of America could look up to, it was Mr. Hal Jones. His cheerfulness in spite of losing his sight was beyond understanding. I can give him no greater tribute than to say what I thought every time I saw him walk down the hall; 'There goes a man.' "

Patti Anderson was chosen as Shadle's 1964 Lilac Princess by a group of teachers and student leaders judging on the basis of speaking ability, poise, and attractiveness. During her reign Patti attended luncheons, made television appearances, and rode on the Lilac Royal float in the annual Lilac Festival-Armed Forces parade and in the Appleblossom Festival parade in Wenatchee. Patti was consistently a fine representative of Shadle Park High.

Patti Anderson . . .

The petals were lilac,
The leaves were
green;
We hoped our lass
Soon would be queen.

A whirlwind week
of judging and teas;
she'll always remember
Events like these.

She smiled and spoke,
Was pretty and bright;
We all were proud
Of Patti that night.

And so with smiles
And yes, a tear,
She'll leave Shadle
Park,
It's her last year.

But before she goes There's a point to mark;
She'll forever remain
In the Highlander heart.

She's a bonnie lassie
That all our days
We'll hold in mind
With nothing but praise.

Who's going to get that chair? It's hard to say as Linda Williams and Jerry Countryman participate in the unusual game of musical chairs in the Hi-Student Day con.

Highlander Week once again proved to be an exciting week full of Shadle tradition and "scotty" antics. Beginning with Hi-Student Day's rousing con and climaxing with the annual Highland Fling, the week was a success in the best tradition of Highlander friendliness.

Although Steve Ferguson is loaded down with some "sweet lassie's" books, he seems to be enjoying Hi-Lassie Day as he carries out one of the many "duties" performed by the boys showing courtesy to the girls.

Highlander Week . .

Allen Lindholm is "willfully" being carried by Ilona Clouse, Dana Fichtenberg, Pam Smith, and Chris Jasley as he takes advantage of the privileges awarded the boys of Shadle on Hi-Laddie Day.

Traditional Success

Mr. Walt Anker, Mr. Ray Mohny, Mr. Bob Kuehl, Mr. Dave Robertson, and Mr. Jim Berry are found "gobbling goodies" as they attend the Faculty Tea held on Hi-Teacher Day to show special recognition of the teaching staff at Shadle.

Part of the Henderson clan, the cheerleaders, prepare for the car caravan to the football game on Hi-Henderson Day. Chauffeur is Darold Trent.

ENRICO GILIBERTI and LYNN MAXWELL were crowned friendliest boy and girl at the Highland Fling.

Spirited Cheerleaders Represent Highlanders

A small gold megaphone is a token which each cheerleader earns and wears proudly.

Outdoor pep cons at Shadle Bowl featured skits by the cheerleaders to bolster team morale during football season.

Mrs. Betty Hammond is the advisor to the cheerleaders, and also is a very special friend to each of the girls.

Basketball saw the cheerleaders urging enthusiastic Highlanders in support of their team.

Music Department Lends "Touch of Culture" to Year

All-State was the reward for hours of choral rehearsal under the direction of Mr. Mel Kornmeyer.

Performances both in the community and the school highlighted the year of the choral section of our Music Department.

Early in the year the Concert Choir sang Handel's "Zadok the Priest" with the Spokane Junior Symphony. Along with the other choral groups they also participated in the "Pops," Christmas, and Spring Concerts.

Mr. Melvin Kornmeyer directs all choral groups.

ASB Has Prosperous Fall Semester

A week of getting acquainted and uniting the loyal Highlanders was the goal of this year's Highlander Week. All council members endeavored to make this week the traditional success it has been.

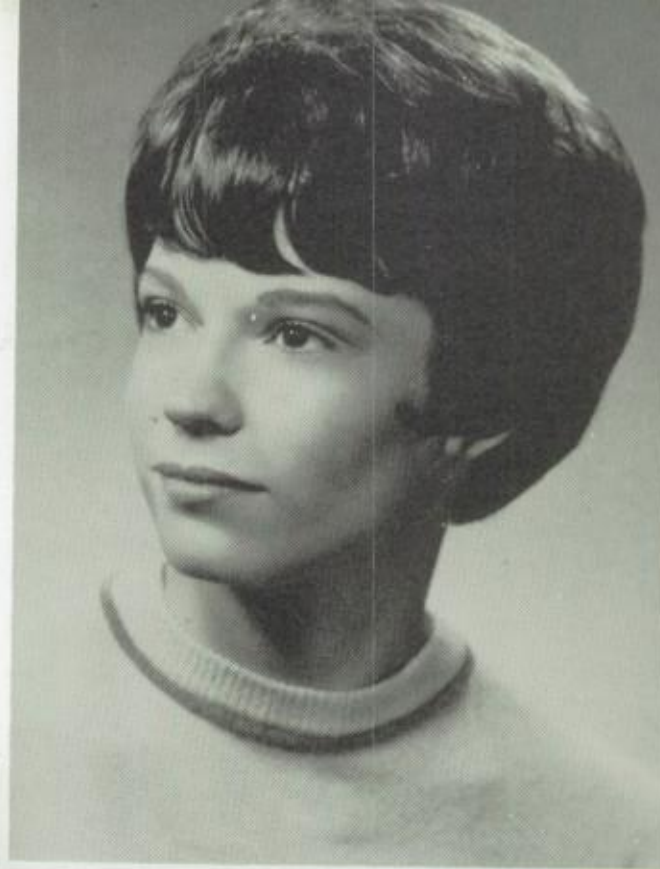

On his arrival to Shadle, the ASB extended the familiar Highlander Welcome to Enrico Giliberti, our foreign exchange student.

Closing a semester of many activities for the fall officers and council were the Christmas events. The annual Christmas Dance was a memorable occasion as was the "Merry Christmas" provided for the girls of Galland Hall.

Good leadership and a willingness to work brought about many accomplishments for the fall semester ASB.

Dances, Exchange, and Orientation Paces ASB's Spring Semester

Spring ASB began the semester by presenting the annual Valentine's dance, "Sweetheart Swing." The council continued the plans of the fall representatives for a successful dance.

Selecting capable student representatives for the Shadle Park—Shoreline High School student exchange program was an important project of the council. Choosing of the delegates to the Seattle school was done by a committee composed of students and faculty members.

A project to raise money helped to send Mr. Calvin Zinkel various educational books which he requested for his teaching in Thailand.

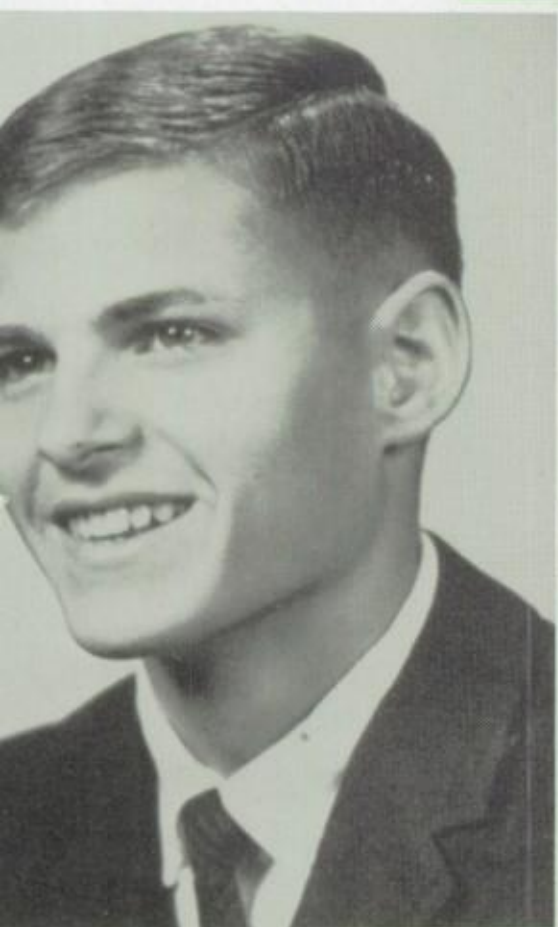

Closing a semester of many activities for the spring semester council members was the Sophomore Orientation Day which was held for all the entering sophomores. The students learned a little about Shadle life and what would be expected of them as Highlanders.

Shadle students turned out in large numbers to witness the presentation of the sweetheart and to enjoy the dance.

Sweetheart Crowned at Swing

Five finalists, Diane Jukich, Jerrie Sandberg, Patti Anderson, Sue Yount, and Pam Johnson, anxiously await announcement of Shadle's sweetheart.

Great surprise marked Pam Johnson's expression when the sweetheart selection was announced. During the coronation, Dan Mullenix presented her with a bouquet of red roses.

A Home Away from Home . . .

When is an Italian boy a Scottish Highlander? When Enrico comes to cheer our team on at pep cons and games.

Not many people can claim to have more than one home or family, but Enrico Giliberti, sponsored by the American Field Service, has found an American home to take the place of the one he left in Italy.

During his one year stay, Enrico has brought new ideas and perspectives to the students of Shadle. He had an opportunity to express his views and compare Italian and American cultures in several issues of the Hi-Lander Hi-Lites.

Rightly elected Friendliest Boy during Highlander Week, Enrico always extended a warm smile and "hi" to Shadleites as he sauntered down the hall.

Although the A.F.S. has been active in Spokane for several years, Caryl Byrne is Shadle's first representative. She took part in the exchange program last summer, spending three months in Germany. Caryl commented: "Europe is a state of mind, a way of life in itself. I could view America through the eyes and with the attitudes of a European."

Girls Unite Through 'League'

Working with the girls, these advisors are always ready to lend a helping hand. Seated are: Mrs. Geraldine Couture, Mrs. Mary Praetorius, and Miss Blanche Smith. Standing are: Mrs. Olga Iverson, Miss Helen Cleveland and Miss Gilberta Albo.

During the fall semester Girls' League bustled with activity. Glenda Dunn, honored to attend Girl's State, reported in a G.L. con that her experience was one she wished every girl could share. Costuming was the highlight of the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, and an exciting intervarsity basketball game highlighted the Dad-Daughter Dessert. The League also assisted in the "Toys for Tots" drive.

Working Together. Girls Gain Lasting Rewards

Ambitious spring semester representatives and officers plan the annual Mother-Daughter Tea. Enjoyed by moms and daughters alike, the Tea gives them a chance to relax and have fun.

At the conclusion of the year, each member realizes the bonds of friendship that the League has encouraged among the girls of Shadle.

Notice the triumphant gleam in the girls' eyes? A month of sleuthing and stalking around has finally paid off—they've trapped the "Abner" of their choice, dragged(?) him to the dance and "married" him.

Girls' League Extends Friendship

The Decoration Committee for the Dad-Daughter Dribble worked hard to show the green and gold of Shadle. Looking over decorations being made are: Jan Brown, Linda Robinson, Linda Rishel, Christy Smith, and Connie Nash.

Upholding Girls' League tradition the first semester, officers honored our Dads and our Basketball team at the Dad-Daughter Reception, which proved to be a great success. annual Big and Little Sister Party and became better acquainted with the Highlanders. The Sadie Hawkins Dance and elections were next on the agenda. After the Spring officers were installed they began work on the Mother-Daughter Reception, which proved to be a great success. For Cotton Day the League again crowned the Cotton King and Queen. Through these activities the League tries to bring the girls closer in feeling that they are a part of Shadle.

While giving her report on Girls' State, Glenda Dunn related many exciting meetings and events. Glenda was Shadle's representative to Girls' State this summer.

Capturing Shadle Park news is the Hilander Hi-Lites Staffs' task during the year.

Elements of good newswriting, composition, page layouts, advertising and circulation, are practiced by the staff members, who give not only class time, but often work after school and weekends to publish the paper. Each staff member is trained in a Journalism I class and experiences holding an Editorial Position.

Developing new concepts was the key for the 1964 Sporran Staff's hardworking year. With help and advice from Mr. Ted Clark, Sporran advisor, the staff was able to produce an entirely new type of yearbook as well as preserve the tradition and colorfulness of Shadle's Sporran. Credit is due to editor Christie Rolfe and assistant editor Kathi Flett who worked with the staff to achieve qualities such as new format, mass balance and increased page size. The staff, as well, worked feverishly to meet deadlines and to produce the best possible Sporran for the students of Shadle.

For '64 Sporran

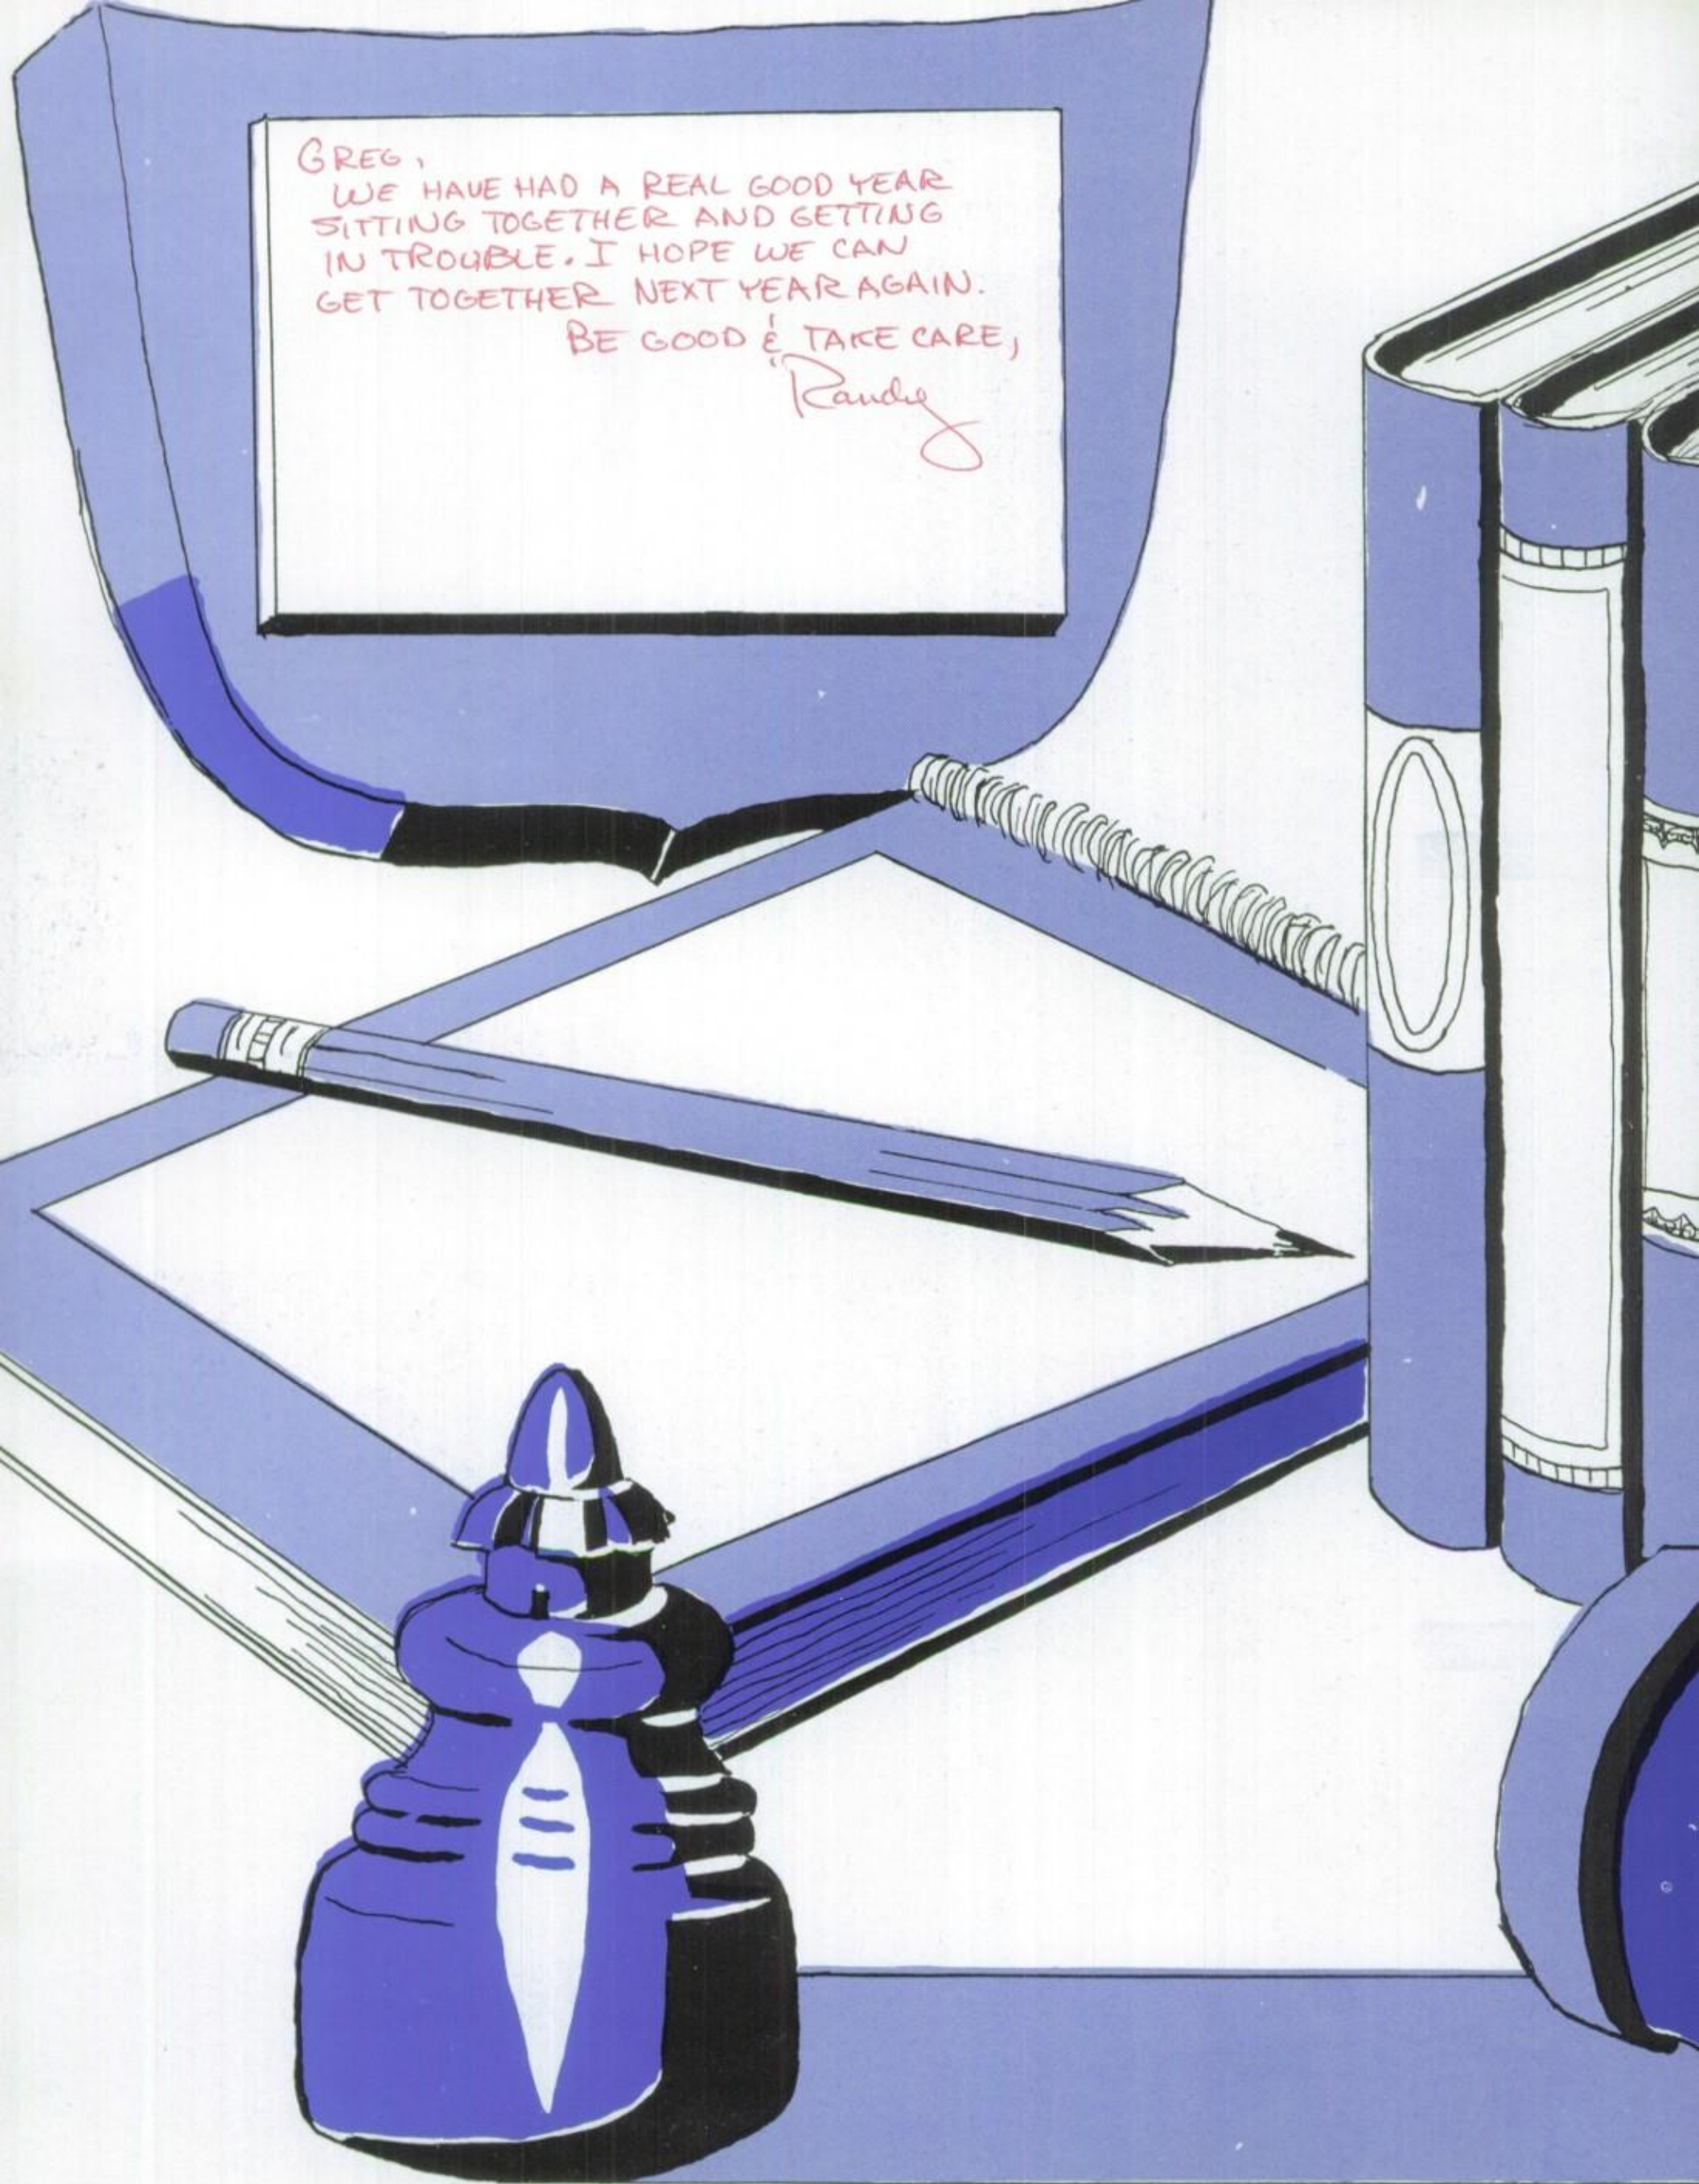

Jim McEachran, business manager, Mr. Ted Clark, Sporran advisor, and Mr. Robert Stockman, business advisor, all seem pleased about something. Could it be that money they're counting is from the results of the Sporran sales?

F. N. A. Members Work to Achieve Purpose

A busy year for the Future Nurses of America has enabled the members to acquire knowledge in their future field of work. F.N.A. members gained actual nursing experience by serving at St. Luke's Hospital. Other activities during the year included having graduate nurses speak to the members, decorating the tree in the school courtyard for Christmas, attending a tea at Deaconess Hospital, and holding two potluck dinners. The club is guided by Mrs. Peggy Ostness, advisor.

Working in the nurse's office during the day is one of the many services F.N.A. members perform. Sharon Hosheit and Connie Nash help the nurse, Mrs. Janice Gleave.

Learning and 'Fun' Mark Success in Home Ec Year

Homemaking Club produces our Home Makers of the future. These club members learn new methods of cooking, sewing, and child care. Club members achieve their knowledge through club experience. Home Ec Club also has Pot Luck dinners and helped a needy family at Thanksgiving. Mothers of the members were invited to a cake decorating party. Under the helpful direction of Mrs. Margaret Kroske, the girls have fun with various club projects.

Students Employed in Distributive Occupations

HI-DECA is Shadle Park's chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America. Deca membership is open to those seniors who are enrolled in Shadle's Distributive Education Class. In addition to class enrollment, all members are employed on a part time basis in a distributive occupation within the community. The D.E. class is the first rung on a challenging and interesting stairway of training and education that leads to careers followed by proprietors, managers, or employees engaged primarily in marketing or merchandising goods or services. Such occupations may be found in various business establishments, including but not limited to, retailing, wholesaling, manufacturing, storing, transporting, financing, and risk bearing.

After voting and nomination took place in the state representative room of the capital in Olympia, Ruthanne Hayes was elected Secretary of the Washington State Distributive Education Club of America.

Leading the group to these aims the Fall semester officers are: Lorraine Webster, Treasurer; Barry Sampson, Vice President; Barbara Sandberg, President; Gloria VanLeuven, Secretary; Terri Richardson, Historian.

Spring semester officers (below) are: Darlene Fisher, Treasurer; Bob Hull, Parliamentarian; Bonnie Riddle, President; Judy Riley, Secretary; Bev Rothwell, Historian.

Interclub Council Unites Clubs

Interclub Council consists of representatives from the various clubs at Shadle. Its aim is to unite the clubs that they might work to better our school. For the main project, the first semester council held a blanket drive for the House of Charity. Second semester council was responsible for the Sophomore Orientation, which featured a booth display from each club.

Dileas Chailin Stresses Culture Among Highlanders

Below: Officers for the Fall semester are: Maridee Quanbeck, Fifth Executive; Francine Clukey, Treasurer; Stephanie Loan, President; Patti Anderson, Vice President, and Trish Johnson, Secretary. Posing at their installation are Spring semester officers: Chris Jasley, Treasurer; Kathi Flett, Secretary; Sharon Nicolls, Fifth Executive; Barb Kinderman, Vice President, and Cathy Warinner, President.

As the members of Dileas Chailin, Shadle's girls' honor club have discovered, the formula for an energetic, useful club is really very simple. The main ingredient is enthusiasm for the cultural aspects of school life, such as art, music, and drama. To demonstrate this enthusiasm, in early spring the club sponsored their second annual Fine Arts Festival. Adding a generous amount of school spirit and pride, members come up with a variety of other activities. Since Dileas is an honor club, before becoming a member a girl is tested on her knowledge of humanities, current events, and school life. Overseeing the club's many activities are advisors Mrs. Norma Boisen, Miss Jane DeLoach, and Miss Carol Gustafson.

Fine Arts Festival Enriches Year

Organizing the Fine Arts Festival was the job of these chairmen: Left are: Joan Shotwell, general chairman; JoAnn Lof, publicity; Sharon Nicolls, art; Diane Luscher, music, and Linda Baldrige, drama. Annette Hardinger, dance chairman, was not present for the picture. Below Left: Paintings and drawings by art students were displayed in the Commons Hall throughout Fine Arts Festival week.

Members of the drama class rehearse for their presentation of the one-act play "Old Ghosts at Home."

"An enormous success once again!" That's how Dileas Chailin's second annual Fine Arts Festival was described by the club's officers. The week of March 23-25 featured displays and demonstrations by the art department, a play enacted by members of the drama classes, and two programs presented by the music department. A new addition to the festival this year was a dance show put on by members of Talent Club and Silver Spurs. The event was sponsored and publicized by Dileas Chailin, in cooperation with the various department heads.

The festival was begun with a concert by the Eastern Washington State College Choir. At Right, members of the men's quartet, "The Uncalled Four," entertain with their version of "There Is Nothin' Like a Dame." Far Right: Square dancing by the Silver Spurs was just one of the many kinds of dancing demonstrated on the first day of the Fine Arts Festival.

Representatives Lead School in City-Wide Red Cross

Working on many varied projects and activities has kept Shadle's Red Cross representatives busy this past year. The two representatives are Carol Hester and Sue Evans, who attend a city-wide meeting each month. They discuss with other members of the council what each school can do for the Red Cross and inter-school relations.

Representatives of all the schools confer at a monthly meeting. The group has tried to bring about better relations.

Red Cross Advisor, Mr. Eugene Breckenridge, works with Shadle's council members, Sue Evans and Carol Hester.

Inter-School Tournaments Highlight Chess Club Year

Reorganized, Chess Club strives to increase its knowledge of the game, eventually hoping to build up enough skill to become a varsity group playing matches with other high schools within the city. One such match was the meet between Shadle and L.C. Members of the club include: First Row: Fred Zemke, Pat Lindstrom, Gary Ogle, Larry Sontag, Diana Barnett, Dick Whipple. Row 2: Gil Harmon, Maxine Broe, Ron Lane, Bob Dahl, Louis Evart, Carl Cunningham. Row 3: Jim Harris, Bob Shelton, Dan Bienz, Phil Johnston, Roger Butt, Mr. Anderson. Row 4: Bill Faught, Kelly O'Keefe, Craig Butt, Chris Hugo, Earl Stork, Chuck Dean.

Rifle Club "Aims" for Greater Skill and Safety

To the tunnels! Every week members of the Rifle Club descend to the depths beneath the school to practice their marksmanship. Sound risky? Not at all, for every possible precaution is stressed. Membership is granted only to those students who can pass a state sponsored safety examination given by the advisor, Mr. Harold Burgen. The club is a member of the National Rifle Association, which awards efficiency medals to deserving individuals. These medals, ranging from sharpshooter to expert, are earned in competitive shoots throughout the year.

Enthusiasm keynotes the activities of the Nocks Archery Club members. Once a week they brave the rigors (?) of the tunnels to practice for their upcoming tournaments. The club participates in four tournaments each year in which trophies are awarded for the first four place-winners. In the spring the members and their advisors, Mr. Carl Schmidt and Mr. Jim Morlan, put their practice to good use in their annual bow fishing expedition.

Wits Are Sharp in the Fast-moving Debate Club

The unofficial motto of the Debate Club is "squellch 'em"—logically. Not quite, but the Debate Club members do enjoy winning tournaments through logical, organized, arguments. They learn the fundamentals of debate every sixth period under the direction of their advisor, Mr. Larry Kraft. The members are put on two teams, the varsity and junior varsity, according to their abilities. The varsity team did very well, placing fifth out of a field of ten.

Words Influence Leabor Braec and . . .

The cheery faces Shadle students see behind the desk in the library belong to enthusiastic members of Leabor Braec, the Library Club. Members provide services to students using the library and encourage reading and knowledge of the many resources found there. During the year, supervised by Mrs. Gwen Durand and Mrs. Lenore Haight, Leabor Braec members sold paper-back books and visited a college library. They also shipped a set of encyclopedias to Peace Corps workers in Thailand.

. . . Quill and Scroll Members

Outstanding workers on the Sporran and Hi-Lites staffs were recommended by Mr. Ted Clark for membership in Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for journalism students. Quill and Scroll, under the guidance of Mrs. Charmaine Kolb, strives to recognize the work of its members and does not sponsor social activities. Members often enter writing contests, submitting their own newspaper articles or creative works.

Quill and Scroll members are: Wayne Lucas, Káthi Flett, Jim McEachran, Sharon Showalter, Pam Troy, Mrs. Kolb, and Maridee Quanbeck. Those not present for the picture are Karen Freeman, Carol Luders, and Joan Lieske.

Art Club aims to promote interest in art among the students. The club participates in outside exhibits and money-making projects such as dance decorations and program covers. The business of the club is highlighted by a guest speaker monthly. Mrs. Snider is advisor to the club and assists in its activities.

Spring officers are: Kathi Flett, Bonnie Buckman, Connie Terris, Sharon Nichols and Linda McKnaughton.

Coaches Instill Feelin

Mr. Pugh and Mr. Henley show techniques of winning coaches.

Promoting good sportsmanship is the task of Shadle's coaches. They train the athletes in the finer points of "The Game" and stress that winning is only achieved by fair play. Experienced in their position, they devote much of their time in helping Shadle gain recognition in the field of athletics. Many of the coaches work with more than one team and need to have considerable knowledge of most sports.

Coaching staff for the 63-64 season is: Mr. Lyle Pugh, wrestling; Mr. Don Miller, B-squad football; Mr. Clyde Combs, swimming; Mr. Frank Yuse, varsity tennis; Mr. Marvin Anderson, B-squad tennis; Mr. Les Rurey, C-squad football; Mr. Harvey Lochhead, cross country and track; Mr. Dennis Petek, B-squad basketball; Mr. Paul Henley, varsity basketball; Mr. Mel Schmidt, varsity football; and Mr. Dave Robertson, B-squad football and basketball. Mr. George Manning, golf; Mr. Bill Via, wrestling; Mr. Joe Heslin, baseball; and Mr. Bob Morris, varsity football.

Sportsmanship

Additions to the staff gave effectiveness to Shadle's teams this year. The new varsity line coach is Mr. Bob Morris, and assisting B-squad this year is Mr. Don Miller. The "C-squad," a new team, is coached by Mr. Les Rurey. Mr. Harvey Lochhead has assumed the head coaching position for both cross country and track.

Go Unrewarded

Shadle's highland gridders were caught in the turmoil of a "re-building" year during the '63 season. Short on experience, the team's ranks became thinner as the weeks passed because of increasing injuries. Although winless in ten games, the gridders provided many exciting moments for their fans and opponents. Much of this interest was produced by the fine group of Juniors on the team that promise a successful season for the green and gold next year.

Varsity Cross Country

Fighting fatigue, Dale Robertson strains toward the finish line during the dual meet with Gonzaga.

Continuing their winning ways from last year the Shadle cross country team ran up a 5-1 record in league dual meets. Led by senior Loren Minnick, the Scots took second in the all city meet held on our own 2 mile course and brought the season to a climactic close by taking the second place team honors in the state meet in Seattle.

Striving to capture a win for Shadle Park is Allen Lindholm.

Finishing another tough race, Chuck Fleiger takes 2nd place for Shadle Park at the Gonzaga dual meet.

Don Stephans, Ron Dixon, Andy Evans, Chris Wenger, Jim Bunch, Rich Semler, Hank Bendix, Roy Price, and Tom Sears.

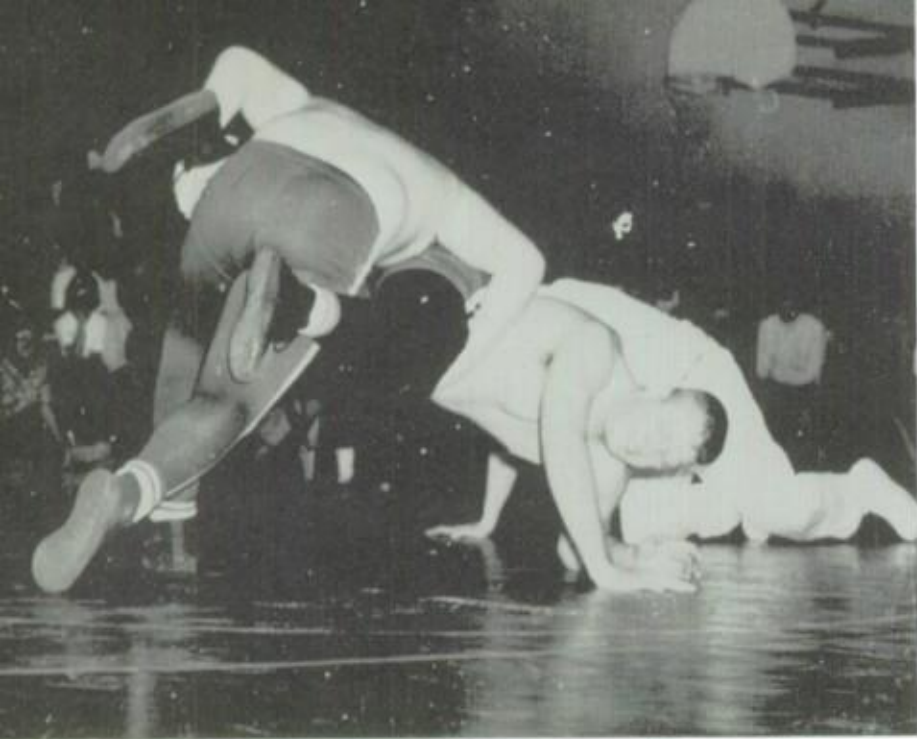

Hard Work of Varsity

Shadle's wrestling season came to a close with the Highlanders on top of the city league. The wrestlers finished with an impressive 9-1 record, their only loss being to North Central. The team is young, but has gained much experience from their matches against considerably tougher opponents and the assistance of capable coaches.

Shadle won the District tournament for the second year in a row, sending five wrestlers to the state tournament. Since most of the team is composed of juniors and sophomores, prospects look good for next year.

Handling the managerial duties this year were:

Losing a heart breaker to L.C. after 5 non-league wins and a league win over W.V., Shadle's basketball team fell head long into a plunge for the bottom of the league standings. After the loss to L.C. they dropped an important game to University by 2 points and then fell apart completely during the Rogers game. Coming back for a badly needed win over Gonzaga, Shadle started the long and grueling task of redeeming themselves in the eyes of fans and sports writers alike.

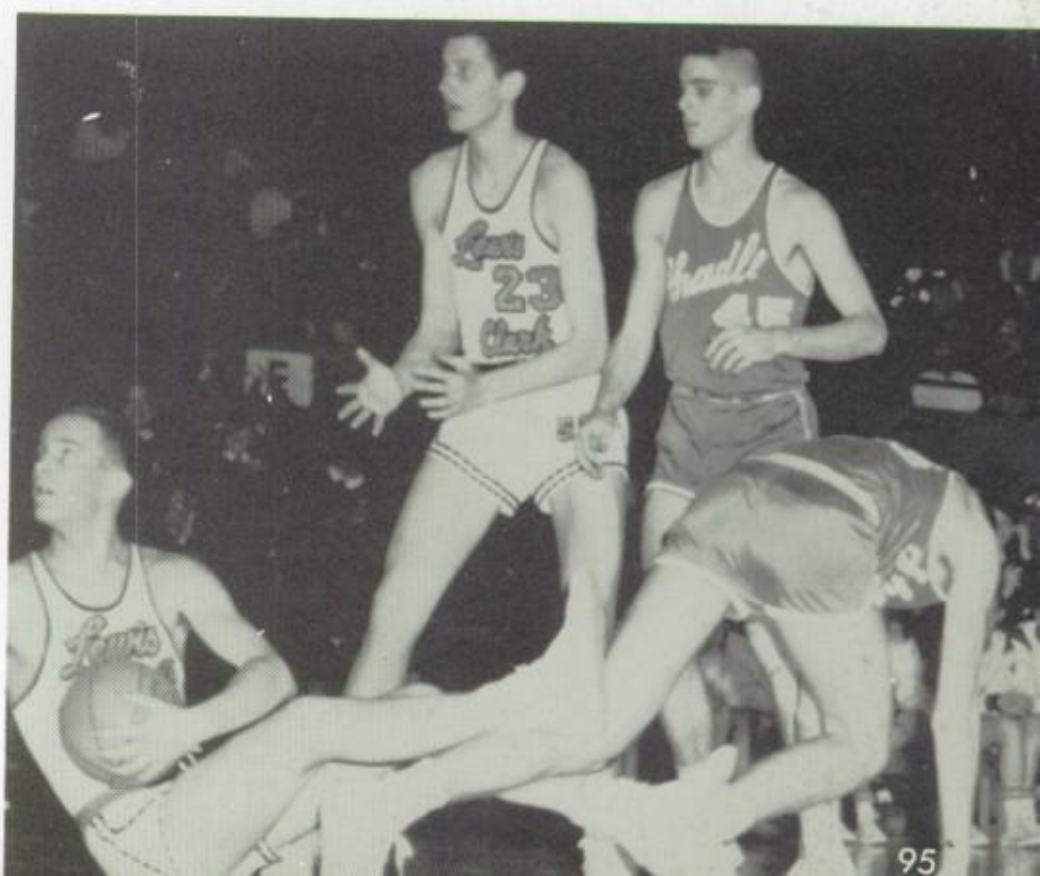

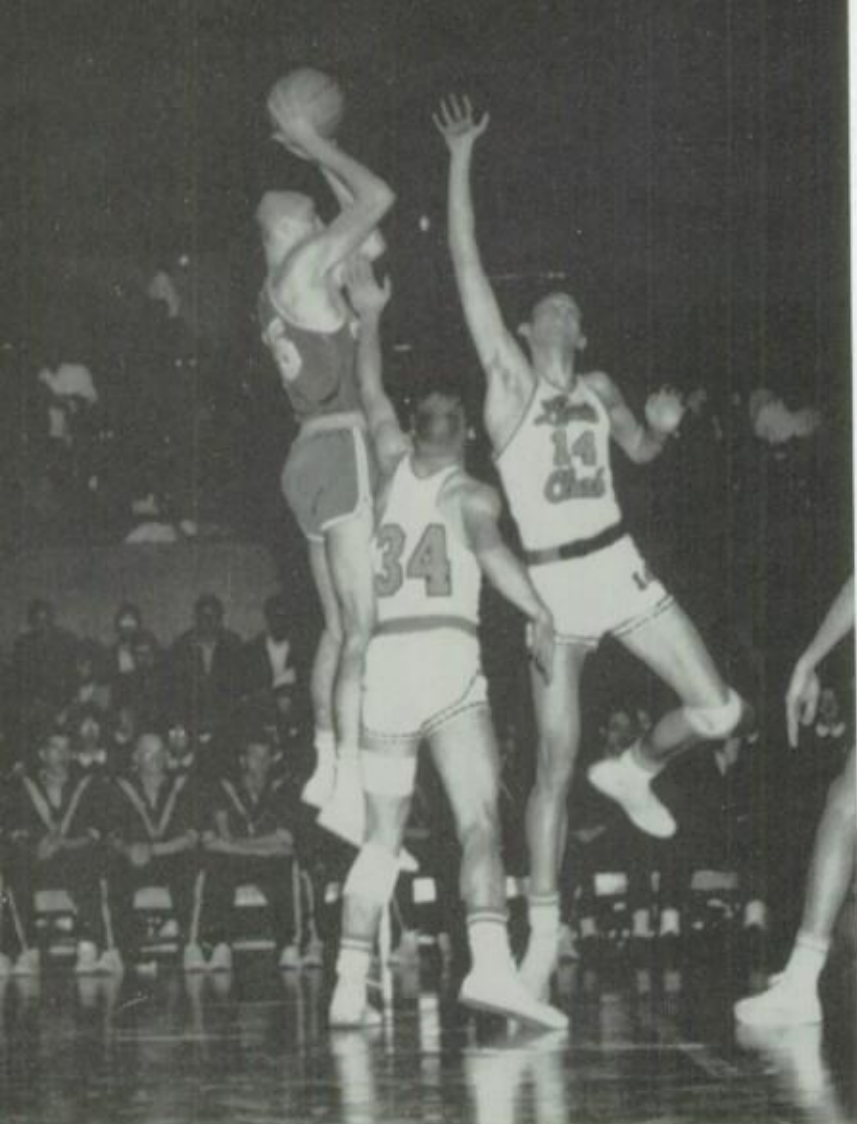

During a game time out, Shadle players get a quick briefing on their playing mistakes.

. . With Even Record

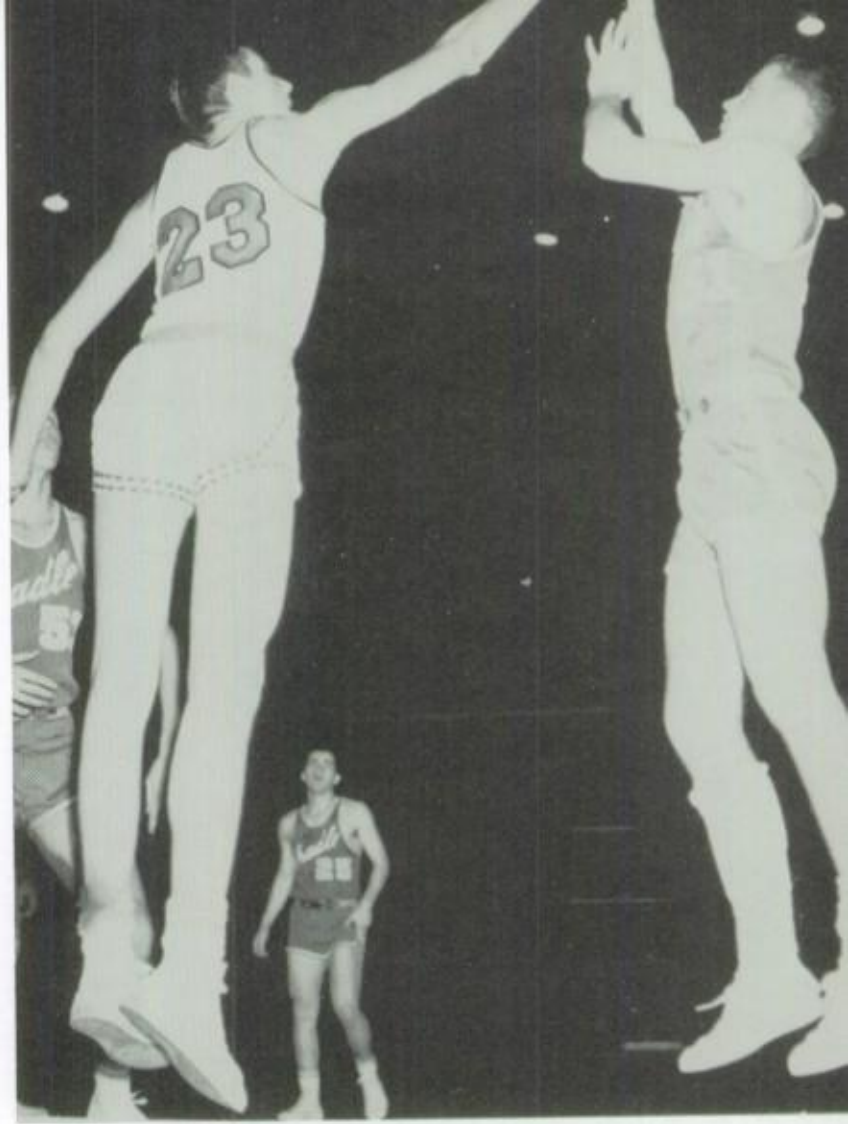

Following the Gonzaga win, Shadle defeated C.V. and N.C. before repeating its first round victory over the Eagles and then again were edged out by the Titans, Tigers, and the Pirates. Shadle defeated last place Gonzaga and the Bears avenged their earlier loss. The Highlanders finished the season with a win over a surging N.C. squad.

As John Johnson leaves the scene of the crime, Craig Johnson questions the calling of a foul.

Craig Johnson, despite the efforts by L.C.'s defense, sinks it for 2 points as he scored his way to a temporary league record of 27 points.

Dick Scott, on a jumper, adds 2 points to Shadle's score as John Johnson (53) and Jack Brenton (25) watch.

Best in League

Overlie await results.

Craig Johnson and John Johnson were voted to the All City teams for the '64 season. Craig was picked for the first squad and John for the third. Craig led the Highlanders in scoring and rebounds as he averaged 16.7 points a game. Next years' cagers should do fairly well with the returning players from this year's team.

Dick Scott jumps high to try and control a jump ball for the Highlanders.

Grabbing a rebound off the back boards for the Highlanders is Ken Neiswender.

B-Team Strengthens Varsity

Jumping high for the tip off, Bob Reed knows just where the rest of his team members are and is ready to deliver them the ball.

Under the leadership of coach Dave Robertson, this year's B-squad had one of its most successful seasons. The B-squad, towards the end of play, proved to be the training ground for many future varsity players. Following Dick Scott's leg injury, Bruce Snyder advanced to the varsity squad and performed well in action at the Coliseum. Next year's team should prove to be well balanced on the court.

Ends Athletic Year

A new system was introduced to city league track this year for the pairing of teams in dual-meet competition. All competing schools were divided into 2 divisions. Each team met each of the other teams in its division once. After these meets numerical standings were given the schools and a city run-off was held between teams in each numerical position in the 2 divisions. To determine the final overall city league standings the teams competed in an all city meet. This year Shadle Park had the best overall track team in its 7 year history. Jack McKenna out ran his opponents and set new school records in the sprints. With the introduction of the 2 mile race to high school competition mile ace Loren Minnick gained credit here as well, receiving tough competition from Rogers' Gerry Lingren. The squad was also very strong in the relays, 440, and 880.

Eager Participants Provide Competition

Girls' intramural sports beginning with volleyball and continuing through the winter months with jolleyball and basketball, kept an average of five teams extremely busy challenging each other. In the spring the girls moved outside for softball to conclude the year.

The teams were formed by grades, and wild names evolved, including, the "Muzzywuzzies," Judy Muzzy, captain; "Willie's Winners," Linda Williams, captain; and Penny Whiting's, "Selfish Seniors."

Girls' Intramurals give every girl who wishes it an extra sports activity. Here she learns sportsmanship and gains friendships while the emphasis is placed on physical fitness.

Teache

Teaching good reading skills and study habits was the main objective of our English Department. In each class students were taught to read not only faster but mainly with more feeling and understanding. The University of Iowa Silent Reading Films Program was used in junior English.

Study habits have always been important but this year students have learned the how and why of good study habits. This was done through the SQ3R Method. This is a method to help poor students cut down on study time. The SQ3R practice should result in an increase in speed of reading, in comprehension and in quality of note-taking.

Special recognition should always be given to our honors classes. Students in these classes not only study the required material but they take advanced study in each subject.

Speech and drama are also important areas of this department.

Jim Munkers, along with many other seniors, struggles with a theme in Senior Composition.

New Skills

In junior English each student is required to read one novel from a selection of four. This panel is discussing Giants in the Earth.

Social Studies' general purpose is to help people learn to live in a mature fashion in order that they may be effective citizens in our complex and rapidly changing world. To achieve satisfactory human relationships in our interaction with others, we study to understand the societies which surround us today, and their histories. Effective citizenship in the United States today requires the ability to understand and act on social, political, economic and international affairs. Varied offerings in the Social Studies Department aid students in becoming citizens capable of carrying out these demanding and vital responsibilities.

The Fine Arts

Art is a basic means of communication like the written word and speech; often described as a visual language. Students learn that art has no nationality nor religion, thus through this course they learn the thoughts of people of all periods of time. The average student and the artist find art of value as it enriches working lives as well as leisure. These facets of art are the basis of instruction for all Shadle students.

Cleanliness and Nutrition Are Aims of Supportive Services

Our cooks, Phyllis Swanby, Thelma Darling, Billie Martin, Thelma Hedin, Ellen Estes, Clara Ninemere, Beatrice Masters, Esther Davis, Donna Dotson, Louise Vinson, Lillie Christman, spend much time preparing food for the students and faculty.

Besides pleasantly serving students and faculty their lunch, Billie Martin, head cook, is responsible for planning and preparing our school menus.

Working 24-hours a day, our custodians keep the building clean and running properly. They are: Front row: Mr. Doc Jackson, Mr. Floyd Jordon, Mr. Ollie Little, and Mr. Dick Potter. Back row: Mrs. Betty Schirk, Mr. Leonard Gamache, Mr. Ralph Sterritt, Mr. Roy Marlowe, Mr. Bob Bauer, and Mr. Chris Coble.

Doc Jackson, head custodian, operates this control board for the heating system and boiler room plus supervising and helping the other custodians.

Using the Gaylord charging machine, Mrs. Durand checks out this student's book.

A close watch is kept over study hall students by Mrs. Painter.

Smooth-running academic activities are assured by the student services of study hall, library and office staff.

Our well equipped library extends and supplements our daily classes as well as providing material for enjoyment. Headed by Mrs. Gwen Durand and Mrs. Lenore Haight, service has been simplified with the use of the Gaylord charging machine.

Study hall provides the quiet atmosphere necessary for the extra hours of study required in each of our classes. The stern discipline of Mrs. Irma Painter and Mr. Robert Morris is needed to maintain these peaceful surroundings.

Data processing saves time for our office staff. The end of the semester brought some disturbance when approximately 20,000 mark sense cards were replaced with a different card.

Anticipate Privileges

Many Junior students work hard in Chemistry to gain scientific knowledge.

Could it be that these two Juniors are talking over Macbeth or Tale of Two Cities? Now who in the world would do a thing like that in Study Hall?

Chemistry is a "must" in preparation for college. Most Juniors find the class interesting, challenging and frequently exciting.

Around Traditional Events

Sponsored by the class of '65, Shadle's new pillows promoted class participation, school spirit and financial aid for the Junior Prom and other future class activities.

The Class of '65 officers, Jack Brenton, Terri Davis, Jim Bays, Joan Gable, Harry Laughary, and Doug Wright assisted the planning of the Junior Prom and other money-making projects.

Prior to the election of class officers Terri Davis and Joan Shotwell helped the class's activities.

OUR 75th YEAR OF CONGRATULATING GRADUATES

In this year of our Diamond Anniversary, to be known as a friend of education makes The Washington Water Power Company proud indeed. Research projects, tax supports and scholarship are just a few of the ways in which the Company has been able to help.

Our career as a Company has reached an important milestone, while yours as a graduate is just beginning. Please accept the sincere congratulations and best wishes of the thousand men and women of

S. 180 WASHINGTON

As the light of progress illumines the future, the spectrum of 1964 will fade to a memory assigned to newspaper files and history books.

Though the general hues subside, one bright spot of color will always remain intense: the year 1964 at Shadle Park.

Twilight may come to our academic and social life at Shadle, but the remembrance of the pride and spirit of the Highlanders will never dim, remaining forever in our hearts.

We, the editors and staff of your 1964 Sporrán, hope that for you the colors of tomorrow will be clear and brilliant leading you forward . . . to the future.

To real good, ready why has suffered with a better one in good old Mr. Andersons Room even if hes always burning a side on Monday night. I hope you have lots of good food, luck in your 1st year John

Good luck to you and have fun this summer
and see you next year.
Doug B. Bistad
